LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATE.

C. W. Beach, Republican nominee for the legislature, is probably better known in Yavapai county than any other man upon the ticket.

His grandfather was one of the seven sons that settled in Connecticut as early as 1760, and served in the Revolutionary war.

C. W., at an early age, entered a printing office at Watertown, N. Y., and served an apprenticeship of five years. He then emigrated to Wisconsin and at once took a position as foreman on the Milwaukee Democrat, published by Sherman M. Booth, who was the hero in the great Glover fugitive slave case.

Here Mr. Beach formed the acquaintance of Governor Ross of New Mexico and lived in his household for nearly two years. From Milwaukee Mr. B. went to Kansas during the border troubles and went to work on the Kansas City Journal, then published by Abel & Van Horn. After a brief residence in Kansas City the subject of our sketch, to gratify a long desire for romance and to see all there was in the far west, he went to Up Hages to drive an ox team to Santa Fe. The journey was performed in 60 days and was attended with an Indian fight on the Arkansas river where Mr. B. was wounded in the leg. After arriving at Santa Fe, which was early in the summer of 1855 he concluded to remain in New Mexico. He went immediately from Santa Fe to Albuquerque where he met a cousin, Robert Conley now of Maricopa county. Remaining only a few days on the Rio Grande he took departure for Fort Stanton accepting a position as clerk in the sutler store which was owned by a son of the late Gen. John Garland, then commanding that department. Here Mr. Beach entered upon a business life, acting as clerk, Sub-Indian Agent running a large farm, being the first land cultivated in what is now known as Lincoln county. He soon acquired a nice fortune which was swept away from him at the breaking out of the rebellion. It was at this time Mr. B. became acquainted with Mr. Ford the democratic nominee for Coroner and Public Administrator. From Fort Stanton Mr. B. went to Maricopa, where he engaged in mercantile, mining and freighting pursuits. At Maricopa he raised a company of spies and guides of 100 men in ten minutes, being probably the quickest that any company was organized during the rebellion. He served with his company under the immediate General Canby, and his advice was generally sought by officers of Canby's command. At the close of the campaign made by Texas in New Mexico, he took twelve of his men and went on an Indian scout against the Mesqueroes. He met thirty-one warriors at the spring on the Gallina mountain, making an attack resulting in the killing of 15 out of the number, among whom was Maricopa the bravest Indian Chief that ever ruled a tribe in the West. After this he accompanied Kit Carson on several campaigns against the Gadsden for the noted Kit. In 1864 Mr. Beach left New Mexico for Arizona, bringing the first through citizen train from Prescott from the East. Since that time he has lived in this county and assisted in every material way to develop the resources thereof. His home is in Prescott, notwithstanding his property interests are at Kirkland Valley. For 8 years he was editor and proprietor of the old Arizona Miner and as such rendered valuable services in advertising his mines, grazing, agriculture and timber lands and other varied inviting resources. He has more at stake than any man upon the ticket and is elected will watch well the interests of tax payers.

VERY, VERY SICK.

It makes them very sick to be "called down" on all of their misrepresentations. They howl about the territorial debt, which they have falsely placed at $700,000. When Gov. Zulick stated the debt to amount to that sum, it actually amounted to $597,000 and when the campaign document, Dimes and Dollars was issued it had been reduced by the payment of warrants to $565,000, yet the author of the aforesaid document put the amount at $700,000. We see no necessity for lying even to the tune of $130,000 or $135,000; the debt is large enough without exaggerating for campaign purposes—but then, they are "built that way."

And they never give any credit for public improvements, such as territorial pikes, roads, bridges, etc. They content themselves by assuming that the entire debt was created by extravagant and reckless waste of money. And they always forget to state that at every legislature with one or two exceptions the democrats have had control of one or both branches, and that the notorious 13th road even as to politics.

They must believe that the people neither read nor think. Then their efforts to place the responsibility for all bad legislation upon Gov. Tule's shoulders is exceedingly funny. It makes them very hot to discover that they cannot get away with their attempts to mislead and deceive the public.

OUR NEXT SHERIFF.

If there ever has existed any doubts in the minds of our citizens, that the back-bone of the old county house ring which has run the affairs of this county for several years is broken and that the people will inaugurate a new deal in county affairs at the coming election, such doubts are being rapidly dispelled. The general feeling is that a change is needed all around, and the independent voters are rallying to the support of the republican county ticket, which was nominated through a free expression of the voice of the representatives of the people.

The convention was noted for its freedom from boshism of all kinds and the delegates came to it as a man unpledged, that only desire being to nominate honestly and well elected and who would command the respect and confidence of the people sufficiently to insure their election. In casting about them for a candidate for sheriff, out of a number of names presented, they chose that of

JOS. M. MYERS, OF CHINO VALLEY.

As being the most available, most deserving and capable.

That their choice was a wise one, subsequent events have clearly demonstrated, and that he will be elected by an overwhelming vote is now absolutely certain.

Mr. Myers is a native of Ohio, though the state of his adoption and where he resided for eighteen years in Kansas. He came to that state at a time when "it tried men's souls," being one of the early pioneers of that state. He came to Arizona in 1875 and is justly entitled to the honor of being a pioneer of this territory. He was elected and served two terms as a member of the board of supervisors, and a more faithful, conscientious public official, than he proved to be in that capacity, the county has never had. He has on one or two occasions been talked of for the position he has now been nominated for, but being unwilling to announce himself or permit the use of his name as a candidate was not nominated. He was in no sense of the word a candidate before the convention which nominated him having made no effort whatever to secure the nomination. The delegates recognizing his ability and integrity, recognizing that he was well qualified in every respect for the position, freely and voluntarily selected him for the position and it is to-day the nominee of the party without solicitation on his part.

By occupying in Mr. Myers is a rancher and stock raiser and is popular with all classes. Honest as the day is long, true as steel to every trust committed to him, the people of Yavapai county, will never have occasion to regret the election of Honest Joe Myers as their sheriff.

Referring to nomination, the Flagstaff Champion, an independent paper says:

"JOS. M. MYERS.

The candidate for Sheriff, is so well and favorably known throughout the county, as to hardly need a word of eulogy at our hands. He has for many years been engaged in ranching and stock raising, and has been a member of the Board of Supervisors of the county for two terms, and retired without one word of censure from any persons, irrespective of politics. "Honest Joe Myers," has become a common expression throughout Yavapai County. He is above reproach in all his dealings with his fellow men. He is a gentleman, possessed of ability and integrity and is, in fact, absolutely incorruptible. His friends of both parties are legion, and when the sun sets on November 2nd, the people will have shown by their ballots that they have full confidence in Mr. Myers being able to faithfully fill the office of Sheriff of this county for the next two years."

The statement in our contemporary this morning, in reference to Mr. Farish's promises, is widely at variance with the one which appeared there previously. While there may possibly have been some inaccuracy as to details of the nomination of Mark Smith, through Mr. Farish and his proxies, the article in the JOURNAL-MINER is absolutely correct. Mr. Smith is the nominee of the administration, compulsory though it be, in order to get resolutions, of "tally" passed endorsing it.

OUR CANDIDATE FOR TREASURER.

The republican party never made a wiser selection of a candidate for any office, than it did when it nominated Wm. C. BASHFORD, FOR TREASURER.

Mr. Bashford is a native of Wisconsin and is yet a young man, being only 33 years old. He is a son of Col. Bashford, former governor of Wisconsin. The latter came to this territory, as Secretary of it, in 1863, being one of the very earliest settlers and pioneers of this section. In addition to holding the position as Secretary of the territory, he represented Arizona in the halls of our national congress, also, as delegate; and his name is revered all over the territory for his devotion to the public interests of Arizona. Partaking of the spirit of patriot and energy, possessed by his father, Wm. C. Bashford came to the territory in 1874, having just arrived in his majority and immediately connected himself with a leading mercantile establishment of the territory of which he has been a member ever since and of which he is now the senior member. Being possessed of superior energy and ability, and being recognized as a man of the highest integrity and integrity the republican party honored him with the nomination for county treasurer in 1880, and out of a vote of over 4,000, was defeated by only 37 votes. In 1882, he was again nominated for the position, but being unable to make a personal canvass was again defeated. Having been placed on the ticket for the third time, by the party, he is deserving of the vote of the party, as well as that of the independent voters in the county. He has occupied the position of foreman of Horse Company No. 1, of the Prescott fire department, and is very popular with the "boys." Being possessed of every requisite qualification for the office, he should, as we firmly and sincerely believe he will, be elected by the largest vote of any man on the ticket. The funds of the people will be absolutely safe in his hands. While identified with the republican party he is liberal in his views, and is not of that ultra partisan class, who are not willing to accord to all others the right of an individual belief, even though they differ from him. The convention was noted for its freedom from boshism of all kinds and the delegates came to it as a man unpledged, that only desire being to nominate honestly and well elected and who would command the respect and confidence of the people sufficiently to insure their election. A GOOD CANDIDATE.

The republican party, in making its nominations for members of the legislative assembly, did wisely in nominating by the highest vote of any candidate before the convention,

GEO. W. SINES, OF PRESCOTT.

Mr. Sines is one of Prescott's most active and enterprising citizens. He was born in 1843, in Montgomery county, Pennsylvania, and to be a Pennsylvanian is a recommendation of itself, (with no disrespect to natives of other states—the writer is a Pennsylvanian.) With the fire and ardor of patriotism burning in his young heart, Mr. Sines, in February, 1865, at the age of 17, enlisted in the army to put down the rebellion which threatened to disrupt the union. Although subsequent events proved that the rebellion was then on its last legs, it was not generally known throughout the north, and the young soldier who then enlisted under the banner of his country, looked forward to all the dangers, incident to a protracted war. Geo. W. Sines, our candidate, now for the legislative assembly of Arizona, a somewhat more peaceful though not more honorable calling than that of risking one's life for the honor and perpetuation of one's country, was assigned, through the regiment he enlisted in to the army of the Potomac in the 8th Union League regiment in Hancock's 1st corps. He served during the balance of the civil war, participating in a number of engagements, just prior to its close, and was honorably mustered out of the service in March, 1866. The brief period of thirteen months' service for his country, with its excitements and dangers had an irresistible fascination for his youthful heart and in April, 1867, he re-enlisted in the first United States Cavalry of the regular army. This time his regiment was assigned to duty in the great northwest, where the Indians were making war against the extension of civilization in that quarter. He served through the Oregon Indian campaigns against the Snakes, Putes, and Utes under the greatest Indian fighter of the present generation in this country—General George Crook. He came to this territory, with his regiment, with General Crook, in January, 1872 and after his term of enlistment had expired, determined to make Arizona his home, which he has ever since done and has been identified with the interests of the territory. He engaged in business in Prescott in 1875, where he now resides and has a family growing up. During his residence here he has held various positions of trust and honor, in duty of which he has ever failed in his life as an honest man and conscientious public official.

Of a quiet and retiring disposition he makes friends of all with whom he comes acquainted. He is the soul of honor and his name is a synonym for honesty and integrity. As a business man, as well as in his private life, he is rated A. 1., and as a legislator for Arizona will do to tie to and vote for.

THE TOMSTONE EPIPHANY IS OWNED BY

Judge Barry a democrat, and edited by J. O. Dumban an alleged republican.

It is not recognized as a republican paper by the party in Cochise county. It is at present a political bushwhacker. While professing republicanism it opposes all the republican candidates and runs no ticket in its columns. It is entirely ignored by the republican county central committee and in return it vilifies its members and the republican candidates of Cochise county. With this truthful statement of the status of that paper we leave the public to judge as to who has studied falsehoods.

"COURT TREASURER E. J. COOK HAS always owned a good and responsible bond and will do so again. Were another man to be elected, county funds might be used by some bank or store and not paid out, as now, whenever a sufficient sum is on hand to pay warrants."

Courier. The above base insinuation against the republican candidate for county treasurer will have the effect of making votes for him. Mr. Bashford has too long a record here as an honorable and honest man to be lightly charged with misappropriation of public funds if placed in a position where it is possible.

General Miles Report.

A Washington telegram of the 10th instant says: General Miles' report is still in hands of the president. It was the subject of a brief conference to-day between him and Secretary Endicott. They failed to decide what action should be taken regarding the portion relating to the surrender. The text is inaccessible to publication, but it is known regarding the matter that Miles did not explain himself to the satisfaction of the authorities. The granting of conditions which now appear more liberal than was at first supposed, is embarrassing and perplexing. Without saying so openly Miles, in round about expressions, suggests that arrangements be made to spare the lives of the Indians and remove them from Arizona immediately. The situation is such that it is impossible to punish them except by keeping them permanently prisoners of war, even should the civil authorities in Arizona present positive proof of murder and demand them for trial.

EDITORIAL AND MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

See that your name is on the great register of the county. You cannot vote at the November election unless it has been placed there this year and 20 days before the election occurs.

The republican candidates are growing in popularity every day.

Maricopa democrats are making love to the Mormons to secure their votes.

The statement that, "if any other man besides E. J. Cook were to be elected as county treasurer the funds would be used in private business or by banks" is a sad commentary on the integrity of the citizens of this county.

Republicans as well as independent voters all over the territory should see to it that the republicans have a working majority in the next legislature, if they wish to see an economical administration of their legislative affairs.

The Scriptures tell of a man who swayed off his birth right for a mess of pottage. It remained for a sub-territorial official and politician of more modern days however to trade the friend of his master off for a mess of "tally."

Thos. F. Weedon, has the following in regard to Delegate Bean; The Enterprising has no word of reproach for Mr. Bean as a man. It believes he is a conscientious, upright citizen, guided in all his transactions by honest motives and the most sincere convictions.

That there is a deep laid and well organized plan, to carry the election next month for the democratic candidates, through fraud, is becoming more and more apparent every day. Information has already been received to this effect and the proper means will be resorted to, to check it.

Among the galaxy of prominent democratic references recently published under the name of United States Marshal William Kidder Meade was omitted.

"Kid" could tell more about that delegate trade than all the other names mentioned.

We learn from reliable authority that the Hon. A. C. Baker has withdrawn from the Zulick "persecution" case of asylum directors. He evidently does not like the way his interests were betrayed by the administrative agent in the Tucson democratic convention.

The office of county treasurer, until within the past year when it was made a salaried office, was worth in fees all the way from $4,000 to $6,000 per year. The present incumbent, who now seeks a re-election has held the position for twelve years, during which time the tax payers have paid him certainly not less than $65,000.
